Export prices for all grades of rice remain unchanged from the previous week as most businesses were closed during the Thai New Year holiday. The continued harvest of MY2020/21 off-season rice slightly reduced domestic rice prices from last week. White and parboiled rice prices dropped 2 percent, while Hom Mali fragrant rice prices were 4 percent lower than last week. The export market remains slow with few new inquiries. The Thai baht strengthened to 31.08 baht/U.S. $1.00 from the previous week's exchange rate of 31.35 baht/U.S. $1.00.

Note on data: Export figures since March 22, 2002, do not include fragrant rice. In addition, between May 1, 2013 and December 18, 2016, export data did not include 25% -100% grade white rice exports as the reporting authority was moved from the Thai Board of Trade to the Ministry of Commerce's Office of Commodity Standards, which does not release official export data. FAS/BKK reports only the official export numbers available from the Board of Trade of Thailand. The reader should bear in mind these differences when comparing historical data with current data.
